SURPRISE SHOWER FOR MISS FALLA

The garden at the home of Mrs. John Young, 1691 Gramercy avenue, was the scene of much merriment recently when the girl graduates of 1933 met for a reunion and to honor one of the classmates, Miss Pauline Falla, whose marriage to Pete Phillips is to be solemnized July 23. A mock wedding was held in the alcove, gay with wedding bells, with Ruth Nelson as the charming bride and Aldine Brown as the blushing bridegroom. Gertrude Peterson strewn the flowers, and Ethel Sleppy played the part of the dotting father who gives his daughter away. Bridesmaids were Yaelia Tucker and Irene Falk. The groom had no support. Helen McMaster served as the officious minister who admonished the bride to "keep house, keep chickens, and keep still."

A surprise shower of gifts was presented to Miss Falla. Hearts and bridge augmented the entertainment, with refreshments served at the close of the affair by the hostess, Mrs. Stella Young, assisted by Mrs. Juliet M. Young.

Other guests in addition to those who made up the mock bridal party were Mary Owen, Gertrude Higgins, Jean Wheaton, Vivian Young, Pauline Rose Eby, Margaret Dove, Jessie Mae McCray, Maxine Gascoigne Fetherolf, and son, Donald, Ruby Avolan, Hazel Briney and the guest of honor, Pauline Falla.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christie, residing at the Edison Apartments, celebrated their golden wedding on the Fourth of July, with a family party at Alhambra Park, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the esteemed couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie were married at Greenock, on the banks of the Clyde, in bonny Scotland, fifty years ago, July 4, 1883.

Twenty-five years ago they sold their thriving business in Scotland and emigrated to Canada, where on July 4, 1908, at Galt, Ontario, they celebrated their silver wedding day. They remained in the northwest for fifteen years, and then removed to California. They have been residents of Torrance for about eight years.

Guests at the celebration last week included Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod and family, formerly of Torrance, Dr. and Mrs. David W. Tarrant, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Jackson and family, besides numerous old friends.
